THE SOLDIERS' REUNION. Yesterday was the greatest of all the reunions of the Confederate soldiers.

Thousands met on yesterday when a quarter of a century has separated.

Whether it be Kernstown or Manassas, Cold Harbor or Fredericksburg.

The last time this ever saw Lee for the first time that our ever saw Johnston.

There were some who had his battery into the teeth of the enemy?

LOUISIANA LOTTERY COMPANY.

One of the most remarkable features of contemporary politics is the contest now going on in the Legislature of Louisiana.

The opponents of this lottery are the government of corruption are led by the most upright public servants of the South.

The real struggle is as to securing a two-thirds vote in the Legislature in favor of the charter.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the very large extra edition of the Times was exhausted.
